ORIGINAL POETRY.

For the Bedford Gazette.

To My Father.

In childhood, dear father, I saw thee
In the beauty and bloom of life,
Full able to struggle with care,
And triumph in every strife.

Thou wert healthful and stalwart and strong,
No sorrow upon thy brow,
Not wrinkled, and bowed in thy form
Dear father, as thou seem'st now.

And then, 'mid the trials of life,
Thou ever wert tender to me,
And watched over my youthful years,
As the mariner watches the sea.

And now when the winter of life
Has fallen upon thy head
And thou art so palsied and frail—
Perhaps on thy dying bed—

It is meet that I should in turn
Watch over thy fading years,
And soothe, in some measure, thy pains,
And solace thy dying fears.

FEDERAL EXPENDITURES!

HOW GRANT ECONOMIZES!

The Present Administration Cost Forty-Two Millions More Per Annum than that of Andrew Johnson.

Speech of Hon. Henry L. Dawes, Radical Representative in Congress from Massachusetts, Delivered Jan. 18, 1870.

The House having under consideration the bill (H. R. No. 480) for the transfer of the Philadelphia Navy Yard to League Island—

Mr. Dawes said—I propose to show that nothing can be done toward removing this yard at all until an expenditure of more than a million dollars is made; and therefore that this bill, which my friend (Mr. O'Niel) said, with so much naivete, the other day, did not contain a dollar of appropriation, is but the first reading of a bill for the appropriation of more than a million of dollars. My friend said that the Committee on Naval affairs, who are clothed by this House with the duty of considering all matters pertaining to the navy, will have done their duty when they have got this bill through; and then as a division of labor, the local representatives from the city of Philadelphia, he thought very likely, might ask for a small appropriation, as if part of the duties which pertained to the Naval Committee were to be surrendered by that committee to the representatives from Philadelphia. But this led to an inquiry. I ascertained from the Navy Department that while my friend was making his statement to the House, painted in rose colors, on that very day the Bureau of Dock and yards in the Naval Department were making out an estimate for League Island of $800,000. This has not yet come here, although Admiral Porter thought it had; this has not yet reached here and will not until this bill is disposed of. But I state to the house that there is prepared an estimate for League Island of $800,000 to follow this bill.—This is perfectly plain from the report of the Secretary himself, from which I take these extracts:

This (removal) the Department has been and is anxious to accomplish; but it needs an appropriation for the preparation of the new yard, and without this it cannot move. * * * *

The annual expenses for this yard are, for these reasons and those before given, much increased; and it is not doubted that the savings from this source and from the expenses now incurred of maintaining two establishments with the money which can be realized from the judicious sale of the land now occupied in the heart of the city, will go very far toward repaying the expenses of establishing the yard at League Island. I trust therefore, that authority, if it be necessary, be given to the Department to transfer the working yard of the Philadelphia station to League Island as rapidly as is consistent with the interests of the service, and to dispose of the present yard as portions of it shall be vacated, and that an adequate appropriation will be made for the work necessary to be done before any part of the present yard can be sold.

"Before any part of it can be sold;" for the very apparent reason that before you can sell that yard and move the buildings and machinery from it to any other place, you must have a place to stand upon; not under water, but raised from nine to ten feet by bringing the earth from the banks of the river on the Jersey side, or somewhere else, and lifting it up. Therefore, sir, while I do admit that the time will come when the yard has to be removed, I was correct the other day in the assertion I made that this bill involved the expenditure of millions of dollars, and should not be passed through under the previous question. And now let me ask whether it is wise, and whether it is best to make this appropriation? Let us not do anything inconsistent with our duty in regard to the public expenditure on the plea that this bill does not provide for the expenditure of money. I do not intend that the House or any member of it who casts his vote for this bill shall escape from voting with the knowledge that such a vote implies also the voting for $800,000 and for a placing of $3,000,000 besides at the absolute disposal of the Secretary of the Navy. And now I ask the gentleman whether it is best to take the course proposed in this bill? This is a new public work; it is not a public work already begun and carried so far that it would be impossible to stop without sacrifice. It is not commenced as yet. Is there an absolute, pressing, overwhelming necessity now of undertaking this work at this time, or is the Treasury of the United States in possession of such superabundant funds that we can undertake it at this time? It becomes the representatives of the people to answer both these questions; and if I have your patience I propose, Mr. Speaker, as well as I may be able to discharge my duty in answering both these questions. Sir, it is a time of peace; there is no pressing necessity for the enlargement of the navy yards. The navy yards of the country were sufficient for the war. At any rate, the war was a success with the navy yards at their present capacity and power. There is no occasion, therefore, in this time of peace for building up new navy yards in this country. And there is behind this a question which I have no time to discuss at present, but which ought to be settled before we launch upon the expenditure of money either for new yards or for the enlargement of old yards; and that is whether it is best for us to maintain this vast expenditure on navy yards at all. The British navy for some reason or other, depends upon private yards. Ninety per cent., I am told, of all the work done upon the British navy is done in private yards. Admiral Porter says, in evidence which I have before me, given by him before a committee of this House, that we spent $480,000,000 for our navy yards during the war, and that we have nothing at all to show for it now, that we have no navy as the result of the money so spent on our yards; and he suggests the building of a merchant marine, semi-warlike steamers as a substitute for all our navy and he tells you that he would advise the building of every one of them in private yards, because they can be built cheaper than in public yards. The vessel that sunk the Merrimac and saved Philadelphia and New York and Boston from destruction was built in a private yard by a private individual, and in ninety days. I say I do not enter into that question now; but it is a question that ought to be settled before we expend this money. But I do desire to call your attention to what the Secretary has estimated and proposes to expend upon other yards in addition to what he proposes to spend on the Philadelphia navy yard.

Mr. Myers—I wish to ask the gentleman a question before he passes from this subject. I desire to know whether I am to understand the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations that it is his opinion, or the opinion of Admiral Porter, that our navy during the war effected nothing toward crushing the rebellion?

Mr. Dawes—I do not know what the gentlemen understands. I neither said so myself, nor did I say that Admiral Porter said so.

Mr. Meyers—You said the $480,000,000 expended for the navy during the war were useless.

Mr. Dawes—I said that Admiral Porter stated that $480,000,000 had been expended for the navy during the war, and we had absolutely nothing to show for it to-day.

Mr. Dickey—Will my colleague on the Committee on Appropriations yield to me for a question?

Mr. Dawes—My friend will excuse me; I cannot yield to him. I understand that he represents on this occasion the State of Pennsylvania, and not the Committee on Appropriations. But I was going on to say that in addition to that $800,000 the Secretary of the Navy proposes besides to expend in the navy yard at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, $577,856, against $50,000 expended last year; at the navy yard at Boston, $747,341, against $100,000 last year; at the navy yard at New York, $833,511, against $100,000 last year; at the navy yard at Philadelphia, $111,985, against $25,000 last year; at the navy yard at Washington, $561,775, against $50,000 last year; at the navy yard at Norfolk, $258,312, against $30,000 last year; at the navy yard at Mare Island, $93,423, against $30,000.—He thus proposes to expend upon navy yards, besides this $800,000, a total of $3,507,394, against $451,000 last year.

Mr. Scofield—Does the gentlemen refer to the estimates for last year or to the appropriation?

Mr. Dawes—I am speaking of the appropriations.

Mr. Randall—Will the gentlemen allow me to ask him a question?

Mr. Dawes—I will answer any questions if it can be understood that my time shall be extended.

Mr. Randall—I hope that will be understood.

The Speaker—The gentleman has half an hour remaining.

Mr. Randall—I wish to ask the gentleman one question.

Mr. Dawes—Is it understood that it will come out of my time?

The Speaker—The chair so regards it.

Mr. Dawes—Then the gentleman from Pennsylvania will excuse me. I may be pardoned, as a friend of this Secretary and of this administration, in what I may feel compelled to say in reference to either his estimates or the the estimates of the whole administration, when I say that the estimates of this Secretary in reference to these expenditures do not inspire me with entire confidence. I know he speaks of economy and the saving of money, but, sir, the great point upon which I find that he has expended his energies is upon the promise he holds out to the House that he will save $3,000,000 upon the article of coal alone, the whole estimate for which for the last two years was less than $140,000 a year! Sir, that is an achievement of mathematics that finds its parallel only in the attempt to save $5,000,000 by abolishing the franking privilege, when all the paper bought by this government and thirty letters a day to every member sent through the mails at regular postage would pay less than five hundred thousand dollars. I hope to see the franking privilege abolished, but on no such absurd pretense as that it will save $5,000,000. I really think that if the mathematicians who put these figures in the heads of these Secretaries could be brought to light and set to work the public debt would be paid before the expiration of this administration! [Laughter.] These are "mint annis and cumin," but the "weightier matter" is the contrast in the footing of this Secretary—$28,441,761.37, estimated for this year, against $15,956,666 appropriated last year.—Now, sir, this is a public work; it is a new public work. There is no necessity, no pressing necessity of commencing it to-day. Does this load of estimates justify us in supporting this proposition? Why, sir, this book of estimates contains estimates for appropriations for public works of $24,625,173.85, against appropriations for the same objects last year of $5,493,000!—Sir, the administration of Andrew Johnson surrendered to the allegation that it had been profligate in expenditures. The people tried it upon that charge and found it guilty, and took from it the sceptre of power, and put it in our hands upon our professions of economy in the administration of the public service. And the people intend to hold us to our profession and promise. What is the first evidence we have put forth to the country of our disposition to carry out our pledges? I hold in my hand the book of estimates for the first year of this administration. And while I know the ungracious position I occupy, I propose to speak plainly, but to speak truly, to my party friends on this side of the House. I know that while "faithful are the wounds of a friend," there is not much ease remaining to the friend who inflicts them. Now, sir, what did Andrew Johnson, in the last year of his administration estimate that he would carry on this government for? He estimated that he would carry it on for $303,000,000, and we cut down the appropriations $20,000,000 below his estimate. But his own estimate of the cost of carrying on the government, which the people at the polls declared to be profligate and unreasonable, was $303,000,000. Now, sir, what does our own administration estimate that it will carry on the government for the next year? The sum estimated for is $331,097,174.62, an increase over the last estimate of the administration of Andrew Johnson for 1869-70 of $28,097,174.62. But we cut down his estimates $20,000,000, so that the exact difference between this book of estimates for the present administration and the appropriations made the last year of Andrew Johnson's administration is $49,682,537.01. It is due to the Post Office Department to say that there is an error of $7,000,000 in the footing, which reduces the amount to some 42,000,000. But behind and not entering into these estimates is the little sugar plum of $800,000 that my friend from Pennsylvania (Mr. Scofield) proposes to prepare the way for the local representatives from Philadelphia to advocate here for League Island. Back of it, too, is the Bay of Samana and the Island of St. Thomas, at $7,500,000 in gold. And back of it, too, is what every one who has heretofore been in this House knows as the millions of dollars that will come back on these appropriation bills from the other end of the Capitol. All these items are to be added to the figures I have given.—Sir, here and here alone, upon this floor, are the pledges of the republican party to be redeemed. We can have no aid from the other end of the avenue, we can have no aid from the other end of the capitol. It is here and here alone that the pledges are to be redeemed. And they shall be redeemed in this House. Here is a public work which is proposed to be commenced anew, not partly finished, but a new work not required by public necessity, not required by the exigencies of any department of this government. Now, when we are considering that question, I put it to the representatives of the people here whether we will inaugurate new public works upon the broad estimate of $24,000,000? It is here in the matter of public works that we can cut down these estimates. I complain of the other end of the avenue, that with all its professions of economy—

Mr. Stiles—Mr. Speaker——

Mr. Dawes—I cannot yield now.

Mr. Stiles—I desire——

The Speaker—The gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. Dawes) declines to yield, and it is not in order to interrupt him.

Mr. Dawes—I have a right to complain of the other end of the avenue, that with all its professions of economy and reduction of unnecessary force in the departments, with all the heralding by telegraph and otherwise of its purpose of reduction, there is not one of these departments that does not estimate to-day, in the book I have before me, for an increase of expenditure over the appropriations of last year, save only one, and that is the poor, unpopular Attorney General. I hope it is not because of this remarkable trait in his character that it is contemplated at the other end of the capitol to relieve him from further public service and to drive him into private life. There is no reason why we should refuse to consider questions of this kind when we are commencing public works. I know the importance of many of our public works. I do not profess to speak at this time for anybody but myself; but I do not believe that the Committee on Appropriations contemplate or desire, by any means, a general warfare upon public works. They recognize the necessity, of completing those already begun, the necessity, it may be, of beginning others; but in considering questions as to beginning public works they propose to ask this House to stand by them in scrutinizing to the utmost farthing the proposed expenditure. Why, sir, there is the post office in New York city, which the architect of the public buildings says will cost us $4,000,000; and the superintendent of its construction says that the granite to be used in building it will cost $1,500,000. No man can tell what the post office in Boston will cost.—Are we going on with such expenditures at that? Are we going to expend upon League Island $3,000,000 of value in the old navy yard, together with $800,000 of a new appropriation, when that work can just as well as not wait five years? I see no reason for these vast outlays at the present time in that direction, unless it be the reason kindly stated to me and hinted to members of this House in a paragraph in a Philadelphia paper, a paragraph intimating that the republican party will make a mistake in treating Philadelphia so badly as to refuse the passage of this measure. I understand what that means. Perhaps that was the reason why my amiable friend on the other side of the House from the first district of Philadelphia (Mr. Randal,) chimed in for once in the grand quartette of the Philadelphia members while their colleague from the Erie district (Mr. Scofield) led the music and kept time behind them. The gentleman from the First district of Pennsylvania understands what spending $3,000,000 for the benefit of any party means, and I suppose that is the reason he came to the aid of his colleagues of the Second, the Third, and the Fourth districts in the grand music with which we were entertained the other day in support of this preparatory bill [laughter] which my friend from the Committee on Naval Affairs offered. Two things, Mr. Speaker, seem to be desired by this administration. At the other end of the avenue they are bent upon paying the public debt; in this House we are constantly crying out for a relief of the people from taxation and the burdens of that debt. I apprehend that neither of these objects can be accomplished without that other thing, which seems to have been overlooked on both sides—a reduction of expenditures. How do they propose at the other end of the avenue to pay the public debt unless they reduce these expenditures? How do we propose to relieve the people and the industries, the enterprise, the capital of this land from the burden of taxation under which they are groaning except it be by reducing the public expenditures?

I tell my friend from Maine (Mr. Peters), who has emancipated himself from care about the pennies and has gone in a vain search for a dollar without any cents in it upon which he proposes to economize, that the pennies taken in the form of taxation from the spikes, the cordage, the sails and the rigging of the shipping of Maine are what make the commerce of the country decline. I tell my friend of the Committee of Ways and Means that the industries of the land, which are flocking to their door, groaning under the burdens of taxation, complain that the expenditures of this nation are unjustifiable and without proper regard to economy, or to the necessities of the case. I call upon the members of this House to stand by the Committee on Appropriations in the pledge which is given this day to the country that they will cut down these estimates of the departments below the figure at which they were fixed by Andrew Johnson's administration, which the people, for that among other reasons, deprived of political power. In order to do this members must foergo any private interests, any imaginary political gains by the expenditure of public money in particular localities. They must rise above such considerations, and look to the general result upon the public welfare. Under such a policy the thousand busy fingers of industry will wake with new life, enterprise will take courage and burst the iron bands by which it is now bound, and this country will advance in prosperity and development. Public works will go on of themselves; private enterprise will push them forward. The nation in years that are to come will build navy yards at League Island and at New London, and if that should appear to be wise policy will amplify others, at Boston, at Portsmouth and all over the country. But to-day the policy is a reduction of expenditures, that thereby at this end of the avenue the people may be relieved from the burdens of taxation and that at the other end of the avenue the public debt may be paid. Sir, it is from this view of the case, believing this to be a test question, that I shall be compelled to move to lay this bill upon the table, and to call the yeas and nays, so that the people may know who will stand up in this House and oppose this attempt to curtail the expenditures of the government. I do not, however, propose to do it until my friend shall have an opportunity to debate his bill as fully as he desires; but then, sir, with the declaration that this is but to prepare the way for an appropriation, already estimated for, of $800,000 to begin a public work which the necessiteis of the service do not require, I shall ask the yeas and nays on the motion to lay on the table.

It is stated, in connection with Mr. Delano's modified instructions to revenue officers in regard to the produce brokers' tax and farmers who will sell their own crops, that a resolution will be introduced shortly in Congress, with a view to obtain a more satisfactory construction of the law. Commisioner Delano has already ordered that the law shall be constructed with the utmost liberality, giving farmers the benefit of all doubts respecting liability.

The philanthropist took the requisite sum from his pocket, and asked his visitor the poor woman's address. "You can give it to me," he replied, taking the money and putting it in his pocket. "I am the landlord. Here is the receipt for rent. How joyful she will be when you give it to her!"

THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.

Its Probable Enforcement.

Although the proposed Fifteenth Amendment can not legally become a part of the Constitution, so long as its ratification depends upon the enforced action of State legislatures, there can be no doubt that the present revolutionary Congress will proclaim its adoption and provide for its enforcement. Virginia, Mississippi, and Texas were kept out of the Union, until their legislatures gave their assent to the Amendment, and their ratification was coerced by the threats from Congress that unless they ratified they should not be admitted. Georgia, after having been admitted into the Union, was expelled because she refused to ratify, and her legislature is now being manipulated so as to secure ratification. We appeal to the candor and good faith of the reader, if this is a fair or lawful ratification. It certainly is not. It is a bold and shameless fraud; a swindle practiced not only upon the Democrats, but also upon Republicans. We are now to have Negro Suffrage. We are to have it without being allowed the privilege of voting upon the proposition to establish it. The Republican leaders have deliberately, intentionally and fraudulently violated their pledge to their own party followers, that Negro Suffrage should not be established in Pennsylvania without first submitting the subject to a vote of the people. If they had lived up to this pledge, if the people had been permitted to vote on the Fifteenth Amendment, there could be no complaint from any quarter. But they deceived the public, they betrayed their own followers and all that remains to to the victims of their treachery, is for the white men of both parties to unite together and rebuke their faithlessness.

There is hardly a doubt that persons of African descent will vote in many parts of this State at the next election. The Constitution of the State, however, limits the right of suffrage to free white male citizens, of the age of twenty one years and upwards. This is in direct conflict with the fraudulently adopted Fifteenth Amendment. Until that clause in our State Constitution is repealed, it is the supreme law so far as Pennsylvania is concerned.—The Fourteenth Article of the Federal Constitution provides a remedy for this conflict. It declares that whenever a State shall deprive any of its citizens of the elective franchise, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, its representation in Congress shall be curtailed in proportion to the number of persons so disfranchised. Therefore, if Pennsylvania refuse to strike the word "white" from her constitution, her negroes will not be counted in the apportionment of representatives in Congress. But she will not lose a single member if they are not counted. They do not number votes enough in the whole State to entitle them to one representative in Congress.

Now, we doubt not, an issue will be made on the point just stated. Shall Pennsylvania strike the word "white" out of her Constitution? If we really intend to give the negroes the elective franchise, that little but potent word must be expunged. If they are to vote by mere sufferance, and their right to the ballot is to be controlled by registers and election officers, according to their various views of State and Federal sovereignty, the State Constitution, need not be altered. That this question will soon be pressed upon public attention, there can be no doubt.—Whatever may be our individual opinions on the abstract question of Negro Suffrage (we know some negroes who would certainly vote more independently and intelligently than certain white radicals we wot of;) it becomes us, to unite in repudiation of the men who have deceived and betrayed alike both Democrats and Republicans.

The attention of members of the County Committee is directed to the call of the Chairman for a meeting on Monday, Feb. 14th. Important business will be laid before the Committee, and all should be present.

DEMOCRATS and conservative men of Bedford county! Remember the meeting on Monday evening of court. No period in our history has been fraught with so much importance to every citizen as the present. Let us counsel together for the good of our common country. Rally in your might!

MR. DAWES is overwhelmed with letters endorsing his late speech exposing the dishonesty and incapacity of the present administration.

The California State Senate rejected the fifteenth amendment by a large majority.

NEGROES VS. POOR MEN.

The case of Scull and Findlay in the State Senate, says the Pittsburg Post, is somewhat remarkable for several reasons, and not the least of which is the allegation set up by Mr. Scull in his petition, that there were certain paupers voted for Mr. Findlay, therefore he ought to be ousted from his seat, and Mr. Scull installed.

Whether certain paupers did or did not vote for Mr. Findlay we neither know nor care. It is altogether possible that as many voted for Mr. Scull as for Mr. Findlay. We were not aware before that to be poor implied a lack of intelligence to such an extent as to debar a man of the privilege of casting a ballot. Intelligence ought to go no inconsiderable distance in determining a man's eligibility to vote or hold office.

Taking this view of it, we suggest that a competent phrenologist be sent to Harrisburg to take a mush and milk cast of Mr. Scull's skull with a view to a critical phrenological examination, to see whether he possesses the requisite bumps to act in the capacity of a Senator of the Commonwealth.—If he don't come up to the standard, let his aspirations be snuffed out.—We have known legislators, and even members of Congress, who were far less intelligent than numbers of their poor constituents.

Mr. Scull evidently thinks that men have no business to be poor, and if they are, so grave a penalty as disfranchisement should be inflicted upon them.—He should bear in mind that riches often take unto themselves wings and fly away, and that some time in the future, he may have the misfortune to be placed in the same category so far as money is concerned with the men whom he wants disfranchised.

But look at it in another light. Mr. Scull and the party to which he belongs, insist upon conferring the right of franchise upon every negro by the operation of the Fifteenth Amendment. But, says some one, the right of suffrage may be restricted by property qualifications, &c. True, it may be under the Fifteenth Amendment, as to white men, but not as to negroes. Their right to vote "shall not be abridged," under any circumstances.—Is it better to be a poor, but intelligent white man, or a Guinea negro? Would Mr. Scull and his party have the kindness to explain?

DEMOCRATS will take supreme delight in attending the elections next fall to observe with what grace Republicans will vote alongside of Negroes. As Democrats have always predicted that Negro Suffrage was near at hand, and as Republicans have always denied it, the former will go to the polls like men, feeling that they have been fully sustained in their predictions; but how will the latter approach the ballot-box? What shame and confusion of face, knowing that they have been hood-winked and betrayed by their leaders, by whose false promises they were led to deceive their friends and neighbors.

AT last the "Fifteenth Amendment" is to be represented in the United States Senate. A negro named Revels has been elected to represent the State of Mississippi in that body for the term expiring March 4th, 1871. The Radicals are playing a little shy of their "man and brother" and it is even hinted that further legislation will be necessary before the Senators and Representatives of Mississippi will be permitted to take their seats in Congress. It will be remembered that the Radicals managed to keep out Menard, the Louisiana negro, last term, by various pretexts, and it will be seen now whether they will serve Revels in the same way.

A FEARFUL state of affairs exists along the Texas frontier. The San Antonia Star says: "Never since the days of border warfare in England was a fronteir so ravaged. Our settlers, after innumerable vain appeals to the authorities here and at Washington, are now debating the propriety of reprisals, and of crossing the line with a strong force into Mexico for the purpose of abating the Kickapoo nuisance with fire and the sword." Plenty of soldiers and lots of treasure for reconstruction in the interest of the radical party, but not a man nor a dollar for the protection of the Texas frontier!—Smoke on, Mr. Grant, and blather away, Congressmen! What matters it to you that the torch and the scalping knife scatter ruin and desolation on the border!

THE Foster-Covode contested election case has at last been reached and the seat has been given to the latter.—In the language of the great "alligator," no greater "frod" was ever perpetrated. Foster was legally elected by over one hundred majority, and the will of the people has been set aside by the unrighteous decision of a partisan committee. But what degree of fairness can be expected from a committee of which John Cessna is a member?

THE Presidential head is said to be sadly perplexed about this time.—Dawes' exposure of the extravagant expenditures of the administration, Fisk's testimony before the Committee on the Gold Swindle, the rivalry of Colfax for the succession, the profound somnolency of Motley at the court of St. James, the curses of the Cuban patriots, the disordered condition of financial affairs, and other irritating matters of a similar character, have operated to disturb even the stolid equanimity of the Smoker of the White House. It is said that a bear, with a lesion of the caput, would be an agreeable companion compared with His Excellency at the present writing. Nothing less than the tender of a gift of a new brown stone residence in New York, or Philadelphia, will gain a caller at the White House admission to his presence.

A fourth political party was organized in New Hampshire last week. The working-men, in council, concocted a Labor Reform party, and nominated Samuel Flint, an old Free Soiler and an advocate of taxing bonds and paying them in currency, for Governor. Besides Mr. Flint, their are now Democratic, Republican, and Temperance candidates in the field.—The two new parties get what strength they have from the Republicans. The Labor Reform managers claim to control 8,000 votes. As the Republican majority in New Hampshire was but 3,700 last year, the Democrats have an excellent chance to carry the State.—The election takes place March 8.

THE estimates of the appropriations for the several departments of the Federal government for the coming fiscal year, exceed the expenditures of the last year of Andrew Johnson's administration upwards of Fifty Millions of Dollars. This is retrenchment and reform with a vengeance. During the canvass of 1868, the strong card of the supporters of Grant was their promise of rigid economy in the administration of the government. They will hardly play it again.

DAWES has thoroughly punctured the puffed up administration of Grant, and let daylight into that inflated concern. He has exposed the misdoings of his own party and the Radical family is greatly disturbed thereat. Let there be light, so that the people can see what it costs to have a man at the head of the government who is a mere tool in the hands of designing and unscrupulous politicians.

The Radicalized Legislature of Georgia is turning out Democrats and admitting to their places their opponents who were not elected. Nine defeated Radicals were seated thus, last week.

WENDELL PHILLIPS wants Ben Butler to be the next President.—There would certainly be one advantage in this. Ben could bring plenty of good spoons to the White House.

THE OLD GUARD.—The February number of this truly valuable magazine has reached us. The story of 'The Heir of Gaymount,' is continued. The following are among the leading articles of this number: At the Opera; The Land of Malays; Man Hunting in the Adirobacks; My first and Last Ghost; Down among the Dead Men. "The McDoodle Club" tells many good yarns, and is quite an interesting feature of this magazine. The old Guard is published by Van Evrie, Horton & Co., 162 Nassau street, New York, at $3 00 a year.

The Democratic members of Congress are having Mr. Dawes' powerful speech on the wickedness of the Republican party printed for general circulation. Forney's two papers are showing symptoms of reading Mr. Dawes out of the party. He is certainly too honest to remain longer in such company.

Salnave was captured on the 13th ult., in the woods, and taken to Port au Prince, heavily ironed, and thrown into prison. In accordance with the code apparently prevailing everywhere in the West Indies, he was shot like a dog. Better and more heroic would it have been had he blown himself up with his fourteen sons, as per previous announcement. The unbreeched darkies of Aux Cayes, from which our correspondent writes, are dancing through the streets in festive glee over the capture and execution of their fallen despot. As fast as the soldiers of the defeated army are brought in they are shot.

The London Times very naturally expresses astonishment that the United States government is negotiating for the annexation of San Domingo, when it will be only adding another negro community to those already so difficult to manage.

A salute of one hundred guns was fired in Richmond Virginia, on account of the admission of the State. About five thousand persons were present, two-thirds of whom were negroes, Governor Walker and others made speeches.

A friend sat up with a sick man at Fond du Lac the other night, to whom he was to administer brandy at brief intervals. The friend took the brandy himself, and the sick man recovered.

Detroit last year manufactured chewing tobacco worth $1,847,115, and smoking tobacco of the value of $42,391,661. The taxes paid amounted to $674,063 06.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.

The Virginia bill, with the Senate amendments, passed the House of Representatives yesterday after a very spicy debate, in which Bingham, Butler, and Farnsworth indulged in bitter personalties. Butler opened the unpleasantness by flinging a taunt at Bingham, who responded with an indignant allusion to the Lowell pettifogger's vulgarity. Butler then lugged in the "murder of Mrs. Surratt," and, as usual, poor Bingham dropped into his seat, completely repulsed and unable to say another word during the debate. Butler always brings him down with Mrs. Surratt. Mr. Farnsworth, however, took up the cudgel for Bingham, and delivered a savage philippic against Butler, going over his rascally career both before and after his conversion to Radicalism. After this episode, which created some laughter and more excitement, the consideration of the bill was resumed. Messrs. S. S. Cox and Morgan, on the Democratic side, made vigorous protests against the passage of a measure which so unnecessarily degraded the Old Dominion. The Bingham Radicals expressed their abhorrence of the bill also, but proposed to vote for it to avoid keeping Virginia out in the cold any longer. The bill then passed by a strict party vote—136 to 57. In substance it admits Virginia, but prescribes that the test oath shall be taken by the members of the Legislature before their admission to seats, and that the State Constitution shall never be amended so as to deprive negroes of the suffrage or the right to attend the same schools as whites. The further business of the House consisted in a debate on the outrages of General Terry in Georgia, the presentation of petitions by Mr. Mungen from 155 citizens of Worcester, Massachusetts, praying for the repudiation of the public debt, and the introduction of the following bills: To authorize the people of New Mexico to form a constitution and State government preparatory to admission as a State; to increase the number of judges of the Supreme Court; to regulate the mode of determining the ratification of the constitutional amendment, and to establish postal telegraph lines. The Senate debated Mr. Sherman's finance bill, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Howe making long speeches. Mr. Wilson introduced a joint resolution to grant a pension of $2,000 per annum to Mrs. Lincoln, from the time of her husband's death. Mr. Norton attempted to get in a resolution inquiring into the arbitary conduct of General Terry in Georgia, but Mr. Sumner promptly stopped it.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.

The finance question was discussed at length in the Senate, yesterday. Mr. Fenton made a long, rambling speech in which he exhibited no improvement, in his perception of financial principles, upon the early mattress days of gushing youth. When he had finished, he had succeeded in involving himself in the meshes of impenetrable fog. Mr. Sumner called up his amendment to increase the bank circulation to five hundred millions. Mr. Morton and Mr. Garret Davis both attacked Sherman's bill in vigorous speeches. In the House the League Island swindle was discussed until the expiration of the morning hour. The contested election case of Wallace against Simpson (Fourth South Carolina District, from which Simpson, Dem., was elected by only 4,000 majority) was taken up, debated, and, on motion of Butler, recommitted. Mr. Schofield from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill for the reorganization of the navy. The House passed the bill providing that no title shall be acquired in California public lands except by actual settlement under the homestead or pre-emption laws.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.

Mr. Sherman's Currency bill occupied the attention of the Senate yesterday until the hour of adjournment. Sumner, Sherman and Thurman made elaborate speeches. The new Iowa Senator, Mr. James B. Howel, who was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Grimes, appeared and was qualified. Among the petitions presented was one asking for the removal of the capital to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and another from 3 200 citizens of New York demanding the ballot for women.

The feature of the House was Butler's reply to Dawes' speech and Dawes' rejoinder. Butler was malignant, personal, aggressive, and Dawes quite as defiant as when he first opened his lips against the monstrous extravagance of Grant's administration. He declined to be put down or put out, and promised to give Butler and his corrupt party another dose at an early day. The House also debated the League Island job, and gave it its quietus by laying it on the table, by a vote of 98 to 67. Mr. Jones of Kentucky, asked leave to offer a resolution in favor of paying off the debt in greenbacks, but a radical member objected. A resolution was adopted to investigate the Avondale mine disaster.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.

Virginia is in the Union. The credentials of the new Senators were read in the Senate yesterday, and Mr. Lewis came forward and took the oath. Four of the Representatives were admitted in the House after a debate over the the admission of Porter, the Richmond member. In the Senate the San Francisco whisky trouble was indefinitely postponed by a vote of 20 to 15. The Senate continued the debate on the finance bill, the leading speakers being Messrs. Howe, Morton, Morrill, and Sawyer. In the House of Representatives there was a sharp debate on the admission of Charles Porter (Radical) as Representatives from Virginia, it having been proved that he was disloyal during the war, and had denounced the sainted Lincoln as a humbug. The Democrats made no opposition to the admission, in order to establish a precedent for the future. The Radical exrebel was therefore permitted to have his seat by a vote of 153 to 5. During the Discussion Messrs. Cox and Woodward made an eloquent defence of the Democratic party against the Radical aspersion of disloyalty during the war. The House took up the bill abolishing the franking privilege, and passed it by a vote of 174 to 14. It now goes to the Senate where it probably will be killed. The House proceedings wound up with Dawes' rejoinder to B. F. Butler, which was listened to by a full and interested audience. Mr. Dawes restated all his former points, and clinched them with facts and figures which thoroughly convict the administration of all the awful things the Democrats have been charging against it.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.

In the United States Senate, yesterday, after a discussion, the bill appropriating $30,000, for the relief of the distressed darkies of Washinton was passed. The Senate also proceeded to debate Grant's veto of the bill to relieve Rolan White. Another huge railroad grant job was introduced by Mr. Howard. The credentials of the remaining Virginia Senator, Mr. Johnson, were received, and he was sworn in.

The House passed, without a division, the bill abolishing the office of Congressional Printer, and creating the office of Superintendent of Public Printing. A debate on the Appropriation bill followed, in which Mr. Voorhees delivered a greenback speech and Butler made another onslaught upon Dawes. The latter excoriator of the administration came up to the scratch again and refused to take back a word of his denunciations. To day will be buncombe-day in the House.

After considerable skirmishing, the murderer was surrendered, tried by court-martial, and hanged. Captain Smith was formerly in the Confederate naval service.

The Cologne Gazette relates a story in this wise: A country girl in Schrimm, Government of Posen, received her inheritance of 300 thalers from the authorities. Returning home, she spent a night at the house of a village justice, to whom she related her good fortune. He advised her to go to bed with his wife. When the family were asleep, the host took a sharp knife and cut the throat of the woman lying furthest from the wall. It chanced to be his wife.

The London Times by last mails gives very complete statistics of emigration from the port of Liverpool during 1869. The exodus was in excess of any year since 1852. The tide was chiefly toward this country, the current toward Canada and other British colonies having been less in volume than in former years. The whole number of vessels sailing to the United States during the year was 294, carrying about 148,000 passengers. Of these 57,000 were English, 29,000 Irish, 7,000 Scotch, and about 45,000 foreigners.

A Roman wit has discovered the habits of all western Bishops at the Œcumenical. The English are always taking out something to eat; the American Bishops are retiring to smoke; the French Bishops are passing about and talking; the Spanish Bishops are in little groups, talking their own politics; the Germans are silent and doing nothing. The Italians, if we may conclude from the example of the wit himself, are making their observations.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge,) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. The object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address REV EDWARD A. WILSON, Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and starts the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the Alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has Consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood: then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompanying each, make it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr Schenck, unless the patient wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond Street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover Street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

TERPSICHOREAN.—A party of the "youth and beauty" of our town "tipped the light fantastic toe" at the Bedford Hall, one evening last week. Everything went "merry as a marriage bell," and all concerned enjoyed themselves hugely.

We are indebted to "Adolphus Dudly Dury" alias George Rush, for late western papers and a "Guide to the Union Pacific R. R. Lands" for which he will accept our thanks. Come again, but no more of your "tricks on travelers."

The Huntingdon Globe, of last week says, "The revival in the Methodist church of this place continues with unabated zeal. One day recently as some men were engaged at work on Jones' Contract, near Mineral Point, on the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad, a blast exploded prematurely, killing two men and injuring two more. One man was blown up in the air about fifty feet, and alighted sixty feet from the place where the accident occured. The deceased were Canadians.

NEW BANK.—Bloody Run is to have a bank. The stockholders are, J. M. T. Fisher, D. P. Gwin, W. P. Orbison, W. Dorris, H. G. Fisher, J. Scott, G. W. Garrettson, and J. H. Glazier, of Huntingdon county, and S. L. Russell, S. Nycum, J. M. Barndollar, J. B. Williams, J. W. Barndollar and J. Dubois, of Bedford county.

RAILROAD EFFORT.—At a railroad meeting held at Somerset, on the 22nd ult., $33,350 were subscribed to build a branch from the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad to that place. Eleven meetings are announced in the several school districts about Somerset, and a thorough canvass for subscriptions is to be made. The people of Somerset seem determined to have a railroad.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—On Monday evening last, the third of a series of temperance lectures was delivered in the Court Hall, to a densely packed house, by the Rev. J. Q. McAtee.—The subject, "Handmaid to Christianity" was a happy one, and the lecturer handled it with consummate skill. The people of this place seem to have an awakened interest in the cause of temperance as is manifested from the large crowds which these lectures draw.

RECENT DECISIONS.—The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, Judge Read delivering the opinion, has recently decided that a bond drawn in the name of one obligor, and signed and sealed by him and four others, is the joint and several obligations of the five persons. If the words are "I promise to pay," and there are many signers, the instrument contains the several promise of each and the joint promise of all.

VANDALISM.—We learn from the Somerset Standard, that Mt. Zion Reformed church, in that county, was recently entered by some villians and desecrated in the most shameful manner. The carpet and a fine table cloth —a present from the ladies of the congregation—were carried off, while the hymn books and a German bible were mutilated and the leaves scattered about. The perpetrators of this heathenish outrage should be ferreted out and punished to the utmost extent of the law.

NOTICE.—All persons knowing themselves indebted to me either by note or book account are requested to call and settle soon, as I need money, and money I must have. Those who give this their immediate attention will confer a great favor, and those who neglect complying with this, my request, can blame only themselves if costs are added. Please remember this and do as you wish to be done by.

"A SLIGHT COLD," COUGHS.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough or "slight cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, often attacks the lungs.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief.—"The Troches" have proved their efficacy by a test of many years, and have received testimonials from many eminent men who have used them.

ITEMS FROM BROAD TOP.—Miners at and around Dudley, and on the Six Mile Run region, have been on a strike since the 10th inst.; also 2 mines on the Back-switch, have been idle the same time. On Tuesday, 11th, the miners of the Broad Top, Carbon and Cook Vein Collieries struck, but there are hopes that they will resume work soon.

A large meeting of miners was held on the 10th; between five and six hundred were present. A more stalwart lot of men in a single community, I dare say can not be found in the county, than the dark faced miners of Broad Top.—Huntingdon Globe.

DISFRANCHISE THE "POOR WHITES."—Ed. Scull alias John Cessna, in his petition in the contested election case in the State Senate, alleges that some poor white people voted for Findlay and for this reason Mr. Findlay should be ousted. Thus, this self constituted nabob declares that indigent people, no matter what degree of intelligence they may possess, shall be deprived of the sacred right of the ballot, just because they are poor and unfortunate. Such is the tendency of Radicalism. The foil Treasury thieves and the shoddy aristocrats of to-day claim the exclusive privilege of voting and being voted for, and the poor of the land, who have no rights which the rich are bound to respect, are mere ciphers in the government and should be disfranchised forever! Shame on the man who would resort to such a miserable subterfuge to possess himself of an office which the people have declared at the ballot box he shall not occupy.

Fresh Ground Buckwheat flour in Store and for sale by G. R. Oster & Co. jan13m1.

ALMOST A FATAL MISTAKE.—A Mrs. Groff, residing east of Berlin, while mixing up buckwheat cakes one day last week, used arsenic instead of soda, and did not discover the mistake until after the eating of the cakes, when the entire family was suddenly taken ill. Medical aid was at once summoned, and, at last accounts, the family were supposed to be out of danger. We have not been informed whether the poison was kept lying about the house, or whether it was bought for soda, but in either case it should serve as a warning to house keepers and those usually selling these articles.—Somerset Democrat.

WAR AGAINST THE CREDIT SYSTEM.—The merchants and dealers of Somerset county have published a card in which they announce their intention of eventually abolishing the credit system entirely," and give notice that hereafter they will strictly adhere to the following rules:

"No goods sold on longer cedit than six months.

That interest at the rate of 10 per cent. will be added to all accounts running over due.

All running accounts will be considered due and payable July 1st and January 1st of each year.

That we will not sell on credit the articles of flour, grain, butter, eggs and bacon."

If merchants and dealers would 'strictly adhere' to rules like the above it would be far better for the buyer and seller. Experience teaches every one that long credits are ruinous and a curse alike to producer and consumer. "Pay as you go," is the true philospher's stone.

A PARTING WORD.—We have grown tired of printing duns in this shape. Our friends in arrears are proof against all such missiles. We have, therefore, concluded to try a different plan, of which due notice is hereby given. We are now sending to each delinquent subscriber a statement of his account, with the proposition that if it be paid by Feb. 19, 1870, a certain deduction will be made. If not paid by that time, full rates will be charged, payment enforced by law, and the paper discontinued in all cases of more than one year's arrearage. Upwards of ten thousand dollars of unpaid subscriptions and advertising have accumulated on our books during the last five years. This is a load we cannot carry any longer. Will our friends assist us in lightening it, or must we summon to our aid that vexatious and detestable instrumentality, The Law?

DEMOCRATIC MEETING:

Monday Evening, Feb. 14.

The Democrats and Conservatives of Bedford county are requested to meet in the Court House, on Monday evening of Court week, (Feb. 14).

The extravagance, fraud and trickery of the party in power, both National and State, demand a prompt rebuke from every good citizen.

Let there be a good turn out! Rally for Justice and the Right!

Able speakers will address the meeting. E. F. KERR,

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY COMMITTEE.—The Democratic county committee will meet at the "Gazette Office," in Bedford, on Monday, February 14th, 1870, at 3 o'clock, P. M. Every member of the committee is expected to be present as business of great importance relating to the rules and government of the party are to be discussed and submitted to a county convention.

The Huntingdon murderers have been sentenced to be hung. The day for the execution has not yet been fixed.

The new bridge in the Narrows will be ready for the travelling public this week.

It is said that one of the Huntingdon murderers is writing a full confession which will be made public in a few days.

The approaching anniversary of Washington's birthday is to be made the occasion of a grand temperance revival throughout the country.

For a business man to stop advertising would be equivalent to his saying: "I have stopped business and ask no more favors of the people."

As sore throats are very prevalent it may be of service to the afflicted to know that a gargle of a little alum and honey, dissolved in sage tea, will relieve it.

The Altoona Tribune, claiming to be an independent paper, is beginning to show the cloven foot of Radicalism. Independence in politics in a secular paper, is a humbug.

The name of Meyers Mills, a thriving town on the P. & C. Railroad, in Somerset county, has been changed to that of Dale City. The place is said to be growing rapidly.

Geary gave as a reason for not attending the ball on the night of the Inauguration, that "his legs were too full of bullet holes to admit of such a thing!" 'Shoo Fly!'"

Mrs. Solomon Filler, formerly of this place, died in Pittsburg on Sunday evening last. Mrs. Filler was an estimable lady, and her death will be mourned by many friends and relatives here.

An incorrigible old bachelor suggests that female suffrage would not amount to much so far as single ladies are concerned, for few would admit that they were old enough to vote. Consummate brute!

TERPSICHOREAN.—A party of the "youth and beauty" of our town "tipped the light fantastic toe" at the Bedford Hall, one evening last week. Everything went "merry as a marriage bell," and all concerned enjoyed themselves hugely.

We are indebted to "Adolphus Dudly Dury" alias George Rush, for late western papers and a "Guide to the Union Pacific R. R. Lands" for which he will accept our thanks. Come again, but no more of your "tricks on travelers."

It is stated by some wiseacre that the heart of a man weighs about nine ounces, and that of a woman about eight. As the age increases, a man's heart grows heavier, and a woman's lighter. Some girls lose theirs at sixteen.

The Scull-Findlay case will be heard before the Committee, this week. The following Senators compose the Committee: Randall, Linderman, Lowry, Brooke, Ousterhout, Brown and Allen—four "Republicans" and three Democrats. We feel assured that there is enough honor left in the Committee and in the Senate to give the seat finally to Mr. Findlay to whom it justly belongs.

Somerset complains of more renters than houses. That was the case in this place a few years ago, until our people found it necessary to make more room for themselves, and the result is that Bedford boasts to-day of thirty five new dwelling and business houses more than she had two years ago.

The Huntingdon Globe, of last week says, "The revival in the Methodist church of this place continues with unabated zeal. About seventy-five persons of both sexes have sought forgiveness of their sins, of whom fifty-seven have applied for admission into the church. This is one of the most successful revivals on record."

One day recently as some men were engaged at work on Jones' Contract, near Mineral Point, on the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad, a blast exploded permaturely, killing two men and injuring two more. One man was blown up in the air about fifty feet, and alighted sixty feet from the place where the accident occured. The deceased were Canadians.

NEW BANK.—Bloody Run is to have a bank. The stockholders are, J. M. T. Fisher, D. P. Gwin, W. P. Orbison, W. Dorris, H. G. Fisher, J. Scott, G. W. Garrettson, and J. H. Glazier, of Huntingdon county, and S. L. Russell, S. Nycum, J. M. Barndollar, J. B. Williams, J. W. Barndollar and J. Dubois, of Bedford county.

RAILROAD EFFORT.—At a railroad meeting held at Somerset, on the 22nd ult., $33,350 were subscribed to build a branch from the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad to that place. Eleven meetings are announced in the several school districts about Somerset, and a thorough canvass for subscriptions is to be made. The people of Somerset seem determined to have a railroad.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—On Monday evening last, the third of a series of temperance lectures was delivered in the Court Hall, to a densely packed house, by the Rev. J. Q. McAtee.—The subject, "Handmaid to Christianity" was a happy one, and the lecturer handled it with consummate skill. The people of this place seem to have an awakened interest in the cause of temperance as is manifested from the large crowds which these lectures draw.

RECENT DECISIONS.—The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, Judge Read delivering the opinion, has recently decided that a bond drawn in the name of one obligor, and signed and sealed by him and four others, is the joint and several obligations of the five persons. If the words are "I promise to pay," and there are many siguers, the instrument contains the several promise of each and the joint promise of all.

VANDALISM.—We learn from the Somerset Standard, that Mt. Zion Reformed church, in that county, was recently entered by some villians and desecrated in the most shameful manner. The carpet and a fine table cloth—a present from the ladies of the congregation—were carried off, while the hymn books and a German bible were mutilated and the leaves scattered about. The perpetrators of this heathenish outrage should be ferreted out and punished to the utmost extent of the law.

NOTICE.—All persons knowing themselves indebted to me either by note or book account are requested to call and settle soon, as I need money, and money I must have. Those who give this their immediate attention will confer a great favor, and those who neglect complying with this, my request, can blame only themselves it costs are added. Please remember this and do as you wish to be done by.
jan27w3 A. L. DEFIBAUGH.

"A SLIGHT COLD," COUGHS.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough or "slight cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, often attacks the lungs.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief.—"The Troches" have proved their efficacy by a test of many years, and have received testimonials from many eminent men who have used them.

ITEMS FROM BROAD TOP.—Miners at and around Dudley, and on the Six Mile Run region, have been on a strike since the 10th inst.; also 2 mines on the Back-switch, have been idle the same time. On Tuesday, 11th, the miners of the Broad Top, Carbon and Cook Vein Collieries struck, but there are hopes that they will resume work soon.

A large meeting of miners was held on the 10th; between five and six hundred were present. A more stalwart lot of men in a single community, I dare say can not be found in the county, than the dark faced miners of Broad Top.—Huntingdon Globe.

DISFRANCHISE THE "POOR WHITES."—Ed. Scull alias John Cessna, in his petition in the contested election case in the State Senate, alleges that some poor white people voted for Findlay and for this reason Mr. Findlay should be ousted. Thus, this self constituted nabob declares that indigent people, no matter what degree of intelligence they may possess, shall be deprived of the sacred right of the ballot, just because they are poor and unfortunate. Such is the tendency of Radicalism. The loil Treasury thieves and the shoddy aristocrats of to-day claim the exclusive privilege of voting and being voted for, and the poor of the land, who have no rights which the rich are bound to respect, are mere ciphers in the government and should be disfranchised forever! Shame on the man who would resort to such a miserable subterfuge to possess himself of an office which the people have declared at the ballot box he shall not occupy.

ALMOST A FATAL MISTAKE.—A Mrs. Groff, residing east of Berlin, while mixing up buckwheat cakes one day last week, used arsenic instead of soda, and did not discover the mistake until after the eating of the cakes, when the entire family was suddenly taken ill. Medical aid was at once summoned, and, at last accounts, the family were supposed to be out of danger. We have not been informed whether the poison was kept lying about the house, or whether it was bought for soda, but in either case it should serve as a warning to house keepers and those usually selling these articles.—Somerset Democrat.

WAR AGAINST THE CREDIT SYSTEM.—The merchants and dealers of Somerset county have published a card in which they announce their intention of eventually abolishing the credit system entirely," and give notice that hereafter they will strictly adhere to the following rules:

"No goods sold on longer cedit than six months.

That interest at the rate of 10 per cent. will be added to all accounts running over due.

All running accounts will be considered due and payable July 1st and January 1st of each year.

That we will not sell on credit the articles of flour, grain, butter, eggs and bacon."

If merchants and dealers would 'strictly adhere' to rules like the above it would be far better for the buyer and seller. Experience teaches every one that long credits are ruinous and a curse alike to producer and consumer. "Pay as you go," is the true phiospher's stone.

A PARTING WORD.—We have grown tired of printing duns in this shape. Our friends in arrears are proof against all such missiles. We have, therefore, concluded to try a different plan, of which due notice is hereby given. We are now sending to each delinquent subscriber a statement of his account, with the proposition that if it be paid by Feb. 19, 1870, a certain deduction will be made. If not paid by that time, full rates will be charged, payment enforced by law, and the paper discontinued in all cases of more than one year's arrearage. Upwards of ten thousand dollars of unpaid subscriptions and advertising have accumulated on our books during the last five years. This is a load we cannot carry any longer. Will our friends assist us in lightening it, or must we summon to our aid that vexatious and detestable instrumentality, The Law?

LORILLARD'S "EUREKA" SMOKING TOBACCO is an excellent article of granulated Virginia; wherever introduced it is universally admired. It is put up in handsome muslin bags, in which orders for Meerschaum Pipes are daily packed.

LORILLARD'S YACHT CLUB SMOKING TOBACCO is made of the choicest leaf grown; it is anti-nervous in its effects, as the Nicotine has been extracted; it leaves no disagreeable taste after smoking; it is very mild, light in color and weight, hence one pound will last as long as 3 of ordinary tobacco. In this brand we also pack orders every day for first quality Meerschaum Pipes. Try it and convince yourselves it is all it claims to be, "THE FINEST OF ALL."

LORILLARD'S CENTURY CHEWING TOBACCO. This brand of Fine Cut chewing tobacco has no equal or superior any where. It is without doubt the best chewing tobacco in the country.

LORILLARD'S SNUFFS have now been in general use in the United States over 110 years, and still acknowledged "the best" wherever used.

If your storekeeper does not have these articles for sale, ask him to get them; they are sold by respectable jobbers almost everywhere.

HORACE WATERS.

TESTIMONIALS.
The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best.—N. Y. Evangelist.
We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian Intelligencer.
The Waters' Pianos are built of the very best and most thoroughly seasoned material.—Advocate and Journal.
Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.
MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adeertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur player, in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

CONSUMPTION, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Catarrh cured by inhalation. Abbott's Inhaling Fluid is the only remedy known that operates on the lungs—dissolves the tubercles, which are thrown off, the cavities heal, and a cure is effected. Treatment by letter or in person can be had only of

The ability of THE WORLD is beyond question—Raleigh (N. C.) Sentinel

We regard it the ablest Democratic newspaper in the nation—St. Joseph (Mo.) Herald.

The New York WORLD the ablest Democratic journal in the United States.—Cincinnati Times.

The leading Democratic journal in the country, and as able as it is eminent, the New York WORLD.—Boston Traveler.

The New York WORLD, the best edited paper on the continent, is wonderfully fertile in good things.—Raleigh Sentinel.

The New York WORLD, the ablest, most influential, and most widely circulated Democratic newspaper in the country.—Syracuse Journal.

THE NEW YORK WORLD.—THE WORLD is now beyond question the best newspaper published in New York City.—Courier, East Saginaw, Mich-Sept., 25, 1869.

We always read The WORLD with hearty admiration of its superior ability, often with warm appreciation of its eloquently uttered sentiments.—Worcester Evening Gazette.

Those who want a Democratic paper will find THE WORLD, on the whole, the smartest, most entertaining, and complete newspaper on that side of the house.—Chronical, Penn Yan, N. Y.

THE WEEKLY WORLD,
a large quarto sheet, printed throughout in large type and published every Wednesday morning, has now the largest circulation of any weekly newspaper in the United States, with possibly a single exception. Among its prominent features are:
1. Its very full and accurate market reports, embracing the Live Stock markets of New York, Albany, Cambridge, and Philadelphia; and New York Country Produce Market, and General Produce Markets of the country; and full reports of the New York Money Market. Each of the reports are complied with great care, and contain the latest quotations that can be obtained up to the time of putting the paper to press.
2. Its Agricultural Department, which contains each week articles on practical and scientific farming that are of great value to American farmers. A special feature of this department is a weekly summary of the condition of the Hop Markets at home and abroad.
3. A very full report of the proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute is printed in each issue of the Weekly World, the day after the meeting of the Club. By this arrangement the report appears in the Weekly World one week in advance of its publication in any other weekly paper.
4. A portion of the Weekly World is reserved for family reading matter, including original and selected stories, poems, waifs of humor, and extracts from books and periodicals.—Particular attention will be given to this department during the year 1870.
5. A special feature of the Weekly World is a carefully complied summary of the news of each week. It is made so complete that no one who reads it can fail of being well posted on all the important news of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD,
published Tuesday and Friday, is a large quarto sheet, containing all the news published in the Daily World, with the exception of such local reports as may be of no interest to non-residents of New York City. Its market reports are as full as those of the Daily edition, and it contain, besides interesting literary matter, on Friday of each week a full report of the Farmers' Club.

THE DAILY WORLD
contains all the news of the day that can be obtained by mail and telegraph from all parts of the world, and the thorough discussions of all topics of interest.

THE WORLD ALMANAC FOR 1870.
"THE WORLD ALMANAC" for 1870 will contain a vast quantity of political information of use to every voter, and of such a character as can be obtained in no other publication. In it will be printed full official returns of every election held in 1869; the vote of New York State by election districts, and Connecticut by towns; the names and dates of each candidate for each branch of the New York Legislature; list of members of the United States Senate and House of Representatives; obituary record and list of important events during the past year. As a compact political manual it will have no equal.

OUR NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.
The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.
OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE, which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.
CAPABLE OF PERFORMING A RANGE AND VARIETY OF WORK
New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.
A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. MIDDLETON'S
WONDERFUL PAIN CURE
A sure remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Growing Pains, Sprains, Bruises, Stiffnes, of the Joints and all similar diseases.
This wonderful remedy is composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. There are no injurious substances used in its manufacture.
For assurance of its excellent properties, read the following certificates:

BEDFORD, May 8, 1869.
I take great pleasure in giving my testimony to the value of "Middleton's Wonderful Pain Cure." I have been a martyr to Rheumatism. For two months previous to Feb. 25th, last, I was suffering intensely with pain so severe, that during all that time I had not one night of comfortable sleep. I could not put my hands to my face, could not comb my own hair, nor feed myself; but after having the Pain Cure applied once, I found relief enough to give me comfortable sleep, and with its steady use, I continued to get better, and now at the end of ten weeks from its first application, I have comparatively free use of my hands, sleep well and can attend to business. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used put together, and I cheerfully give this certificate of its value.
ELI M. FISHER.

BEDFORD, April 14, 1869.
Mr. W. W. Middleton,
This is to certify that I was taken with Rheumatism, in my right shoulder, on the evening of the 8th inst., so that I was unable to raise my hand to my face. I got some of your Pain Cure and applied it twice, and was entirely relieved. I would recommend to every one who suffers with Rheumatism to give it a trial and be cured.
Yours &c., A. F. MILLER.

BEDFORD, May 17, 1869.
Mr. Middleton,
DEAR SIR.—I have used several bottles of your medicine in my family, and find it to be all you claim for it. Yours, truly,
JOHN HAFER.

BEDFORD, May 18, 1869
This is to certify that I have used Middleton's Liniment, for the Rheumatism which I had in my right shoulder so bad that I could not get my hand to my head without great pain, and after a few applications was entirely relieved.
L. F. DART.

BEDFORD, May 1, 1869.
Mr Middleton,
Dear Sir:— Mrs. Bowser was in much suffering for some four weeks with Rheumatism, and got some of your Pain Cure, and the first night I applied it it eased the pain; and after keeping on using it for two weeks, she was restored to health. I feel it to be my duty, as it is a pleasure, to write this recommendation for the benefit of others. JACOB BOWSER

BEDFORD, May 16 1869.
Mr W. W. Middleton:

I consider it the best remedy I ever heard of.
